AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense (Failure to State a Claim)

The Verified Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute any cause of action against the Synapse Defendants and further fails to state facts sufficient to entitle the Plaintiffs to the relief sought, or to any relief whatsoever, from the Synapse Defendants.

Second Affirmative Defense (Unclean Hands)

The Verified Complaint and each cause of action alleged therein is barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

Third Affirmative Defense (Estoppel and Waiver)

Any damages that the Plaintiffs may have suffered, which the Synapse Defendants deny, directly or proximately resulted from the Plaintiffs' own conduct. Therefore, the Plaintiffs have waived and are estopped and barred from pursuing any claims alleged in the Verified Complaint against the Synapse Defendants and from recovery of any damages whatsoever as against the Synapse Defendants.

Fourth Affirmative Defense
(Commercial Reasonableness)

The Verified Complaint and each cause of action alleged therein is barred in whole or in part by the defense of commercial reasonableness in that the Synapse Defendants conduct was at all times justified, fair and undertaken in good faith and consistent with the exercise of valid business purpose.

Fifth Affirmative Defense
(Accord and Satisfaction)

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

(Counterclaim)

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

(Unjust Enrichment)

The Verified Complaint and each cause of action alleged therein is barred in whole or in part because any recovery by Plaintiffs in this action would result in unjust enrichment.

Right to Assert Additional Defenses

The Synapse Defendants reserve the right to present additional affirmative defenses at such time and to such extent as warranted by the results of discovery and the factual developments in this case, including without limitation such affirmative defenses that are referenced in Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Court Procedure or are otherwise available under applicable law.

COUNTERCLAIMS

The Synapse Defendants, by and through their undersigned attorney, as and for their counterclaims against the Plaintiffs, allege as follows:

1. The Synapse Defendants repeat and reallege the responses and affirmative defenses set forth above as though set forth fully herein.
2. Synapse Group, Inc., among other things, promotes the sale of magazine subscriptions through its subsidiary companies. SynapseConnect, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Synapse Group, Inc., promotes the sale of magazine subscriptions via the Internet pursuant to marketing agreements with various Web sites.
3. Upon information and belief, in or around February 2006, Plaintiffs commenced promoting the sale of magazine subscriptions through one or more eBay.com “stores.”
4. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs had no right, title, license or authorization to sell magazine subscriptions.
5. Following each sale of a magazine subscription, Plaintiffs used fraudulent, deceptive and illegal methods and tactics to process orders for magazines through SynapseConnect. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs used the names and addresses of the customers to whom they sold subscriptions via their eBay.com store to place magazine orders through SynapseConnect in their names without their knowledge or authorization.

5. Plaintiffs placed orders through SynapseConnect by accessing an offer that was intended solely for the use of individual consumers who were members of a Web site called "MyPoints.com." During the relevant time period, registered members of MyPoints.com received an email and/or viewed other forms of advertisements promoting the sale of magazine subscriptions. Any MyPoints.com member who accepted the offer was billed the subscription price but was eligible for a full refund if he or she cancelled the order during an initial 12-month risk free period. SynapseConnect and MyPoints.com tracked such orders by, among other things, the MyPoints.com member's membership identification number. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs obtained access to the MyPoints.com Web page for ordering magazine subscriptions through backdoors or shortcuts that effectively disabled SynapseConnect's and MyPoints.com's ability to track orders according to membership identification numbers.

7. Plaintiffs fraudulently disguised their true identity and unlawfully impersonated their customers when placing corresponding orders through SynapseConnect in order to fulfill their customers' purchases. In furtherance of their scheme, Plaintiffs used thousands of unique credit cards in order to avoid detection by SynapseConnect or others. The Plaintiffs also created thousands of unique email addresses as part of their impersonation of each of their customers.

8. SynapseConnect fulfilled over 15,000 magazine subscriptions ordered by Plaintiffs. SynapseConnect paid a portion of the sales price to the publishers of each magazine ordered. SynapseConnect was unaware that the orders were all placed by the Plaintiffs using the names and addresses of customers who did not authorize such use.

9. For each order that the Plaintiffs processed through SynapseConnect, Plaintiffs cancelled or attempted to cancel such orders at the very end of the 12-month risk-free period. In so doing, Plaintiffs sought full refunds for each order.

10. SynapseConnect issued approximately $97,000 in refunds to Plaintiffs.

11. As soon as the Synapse Defendants became aware of Plaintiffs' fraudulent, deceptive and illegal activities, the Synapse Defendants ceased the issuance of refunds to the Plaintiffs. Other than for approximately 350 orders, the Synapse Defendants, however, did not stop fulfillment of the magazines to the Plaintiffs' customers.

FIRST COUNTERCLAIM
(Fraud)

12. The Synapse Defendants repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 11 of its Counterclaims as if set forth fully herein.

13. By undertaking the scheme described herein, the Plaintiffs have committed fraud against the Synapse Defendants.

14. Plaintiffs' fraudulent acts were intentional and willful.

15. Plaintiffs engaged in the fraudulent conduct with the intent that the Synapse Defendants would reasonably rely on such conduct.

In so doing, the Plaintiffs received refunds from the Synapse Defendants in the amount of more than $97,000 for which they were not entitled.

17. The Synapse Defendants, to their detriment, reasonably relied on the Plaintiffs' fraudulent conduct in accepting the orders from the Plaintiffs, fulfilling the magazine subscriptions and issuing refunds to the Plaintiffs. Had the Synapse Defendants known the true nature of the Plaintiffs' fraudulent conduct, they would not have accepted and fulfilled the orders.

18. As a result of the Plaintiffs' fraudulent conduct, SynapseConnect lost future business opportunity with MyPoints.com thus suffering substantial economic harm.

19. As a result of the Plaintiffs' fraudulent conduct, the Synapse Defendants have been damaged in an amount no less than $200,000.

20. The fraudulent conduct of the Plaintiffs was willful and malicious. Accordingly, the Synapse Defendants also seek punitive damages against the Plaintiffs in an amount not less than $1,000,000.

SECOND COUNTERCLAIM
(Unjust Enrichment)

21. The Synapse Defendants repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 20 of its Counterclaims as if set forth fully herein.

By receiving refunds of more than $97,000 from the Synapse Defendants for orders that were fraudulently and deceptively placed through SynapseConnect, the Plaintiffs were unjustly enriched.

WHEREFORE, Defendants and Counterclaimants Synapse Group, Inc and SynapseConnect, Inc. demand judgment against the Plaintiffs as follows:

- (A) For all compensatory damages suffered by the Synapse Defendants by reason of the Plaintiffs' fraudulent acts, with interest;
- (B) Punitive damages in the amount not less than $1,000,000;
- (C) For all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Synapse Defendants in connection with action, with interest; and
- (D) That the Synapse Defendants be awarded such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
